

Keep Up With What MSHA and OSHA Are Saying At the ABA OSHA Midwinter Meetings

Insights

3.12.14

The ABA-OSHA annual Committee Meeting is always one of the best occasions to learn where Fed-OSHA and the State-OSHA Plans are heading. As I type, Jordan Barab, Deputy Assistant Secretary - OSHA is discussing and sort of defending the Fed-OSHA increasing authority over State-Plans, including the recent CASPA against Indiana OSHA. Good stuff comes out of our annual meetings and various articles will be published by publications. If you want brief play-by-play updates as they occur, follow me on Twitter, @howardmavity.
