NAVIGATING IMMIGRATION IN TIMES OF CHANGE: MIDTERM ELECTIONS AND CORPORATE RESTRUCTURING

Event

Oct 15, 2026

2:00 pm - 3:00 pm EDT

Cost: $49 per person

With the 2026 midterm elections reshaping the political landscape and corporate restructuring expected to continue across several industries, employers face a shifting immigration environment that requires proactive compliance. Fisher Phillips immigration and government relations attorneys break down how the midterm election could reshape immigration policy and enforcement priorities. Additionally, this session will explore what corporate transactions including mergers, acquisitions, and restructurings, mean for sponsored employees and visa holders. Designed for in-house legal teams, immigration and human resources professionals, this webinar delivers practical guidance on managing immigration risk through periods of transition and positioning your organization for what comes next.
