FISHER PHILLIPS ATTORNEYS EXPLAIN HOW TECHNOLOGY CREATES FALSE CONFIDENCE IN EMPLOYMENT DECISIONS

News
Oct 1, 2026

In an article published by Nevada Business Magazine, Jennifer Fornetti and Judy Sanderlin explained the risks of relying on AI tools for employment decisions, cautioning that AI should be a starting point, not the ending point. "Quick answers can give business owners a false sense of security that they are handling a potentially significant employment issue correctly. But often, their liability has just begun."
