OVERVIEW

Suzi Goebel represents employers in litigation and dispute resolution matters, drawing on experience in state and federal courts. Their practice includes legal research, motion practice, discovery, and depositions, with an emphasis on developing effective arguments and strategies to advance clients' interests.

Before joining Fisher Phillips, Suzi practiced as a litigation associate at a leading international law firm, where they drafted substantive motions, discovery requests and responses, and other court filings. They also argued motions in state and federal courts and conducted and defended depositions as first- and second-chair.

Suzi's earlier experience includes a judicial internship with the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Texas, where they researched legal issues, assisted with drafting court orders, and observed trials and oral arguments. They also bring a background in public interest law, including pro bono representation and work connecting underserved individuals with legal services.

Suzi earned a J.D., magna cum laude, from SMU Dedman School of Law, where they served as a Comment Editor of the SMU Law Review. They earned a B.A. from the University of Texas at Austin.
