BEN EBBINK DISCUSSES STATE PUSH TO KEEP HUMANS IN THE LOOP ON AI EMPLOYMENT DECISIONS

News

Oct 8, 2026

In an article published by Bloomberg Law, Ben Ebbink discussed how lawmakers in California and Colorado are fueling a push to keep humans in the loop when businesses use AI to hire and fire employees, with California Gov. Gavin Newsom signing a bill requiring companies to assign a human to “corroborate” AI-powered worker termination or discipline decisions. “All of these bills, they use very large, broad definitions of those terms,” such as what it means for AI to substantially contribute to a decision and trigger disclosure requirements, said Ben.
