OVERVIEW

Grant Heiman is an associate in the firm's Kansas City office, representing and advising clients in labor and employment matters.

During law school, Grant worked as a law clerk at the firm. He also interned with the Missouri Court of Appeals, where he researched legal issues and prepared bench memoranda for a judge. Grant gained invaluable experience during a clerkship in-house with the legal department of a multinational company, working on employment matters, navigating data privacy laws, and other distinct issues across the private sector.

Before entering the legal profession, Grant worked in communications and public policy, where he wrote about workforce well-being and other issues affecting the healthcare industry.

Grant earned his J.D. from the University of Missouri-Kansas City School of Law, where he served as an Articles Editor of the UMKC Law Review and participated in the entrepreneurial legal clinic assisting local businesses in the Kansas City community. He earned his B.S. in Journalism from the University of Kansas.
