K-12 EDUCATION. ENROLLMENT CONTRACTS, TUITION ISSUES & RISK MANAGEMENT BEFORE ENROLLMENT SEASON

Event

Nov 12, 2026

1:00 pm - 2:00 pm EST

A well-drafted enrollment contract does more than confirm tuition. It sets the tone for the school-family relationship and serves as your best ally when that relationship hits a rough patch. Before enrollment season begins, now is the time to make sure your agreements clearly address tuition obligations, payment deadlines, withdrawal and refund policies, and the practical clauses that protect your school when disputes arise.

Join us for a discussion of common contract and tuition issues, including who should sign (especially in custody situations), how to handle nonpayment and transcript withholding, electronic enrollment considerations, and recent trends schools should know about. We'll share practical, plain-language strategies K-12 schools can use to tighten their contracts, reduce risk, and avoid misunderstandings with families before signing season opens.
