Service Focus

- Counseling and Advice
- Employment Discrimination and Harassment
- Litigation and Trials

OVERVIEW

Blake Marvis defends employers in labor and employment disputes, handling single-plaintiff claims, employment-related insurance defense matters, and complex civil litigation from pre-suit investigation through trial. He has represented businesses in matters involving employment claims, contract issues, and property-related issues, guiding clients through every stage of the process with a focus on minimized risk and efficient disputes resolution.

Blake's experience has included managing active caseloads and serving as first-chair counsel in multi-day trials involving multimillion-dollar business disputes. He has handled pleadings, discovery, depositions, mediations, motions practice, and court appearances, and has first-chair arbitration hearing experience across multiple matters. His work spans state and federal courts, and he has represented clients in industries ranging from construction to small business.
