- Litigation and Trials

OVERVIEW

Maura Patterson represents employers in labor and employment matters, drawing on her legal training and prior experience supporting litigation and workplace counseling.

Before becoming an associate at Fisher Phillips, Maura gained experience through law clerk and internship positions, where she conducted legal research, drafted pleadings, motions, discovery materials, and settlement agreements, and assisted with case preparation and litigation strategy.

Maura earned her J.D. from the University of Akron School of Law, where she served as President of the Trial Team, was a member of the law review, and received several academic honors, including CALI Excellence Awards in Employment Law and Trial Advocacy. She earned her B.A. in Political Science from Robert Morris University.
