UNDERSTANDING JOINT EMPLOYERS IN CONSTRUCTION

Event
Dec 2, 2026
3:00 pm - 4:00 pm EST

Join Fisher Phillips' Partners Curt Moore and Leanna Ruotanen for a webinar focused on joint employer considerations in the construction industry. With general contractors, subcontractors, staffing companies, and multiple trades often working on the same project, questions can arise about responsibility for workers, supervision, and workplace decisions.

This session will explore how these issues can arise on construction sites and offer practical guidance for managing workplace relationships.

What You'll Learn:

- How joint employer considerations can arise between general contractors and subcontractors
- How supervision and control on the jobsite can affect joint employer analysis
- Common challenges involving multi-employer worksites
- Best practices for contracts, documentation, and jobsite procedures
- Steps construction employers can take to help manage risk
