WILLIAM F. CAMPBELL

Associate

Portland, ME

207.204.7406

Service Focus

- Counseling and Advice
- Employment Discrimination and Harassment
- Litigation and Trials

OVERVIEW

Bill Campbell defends employers in labor and employment disputes, handling discrimination, whistleblower, and various other claims before state and federal courts, in addition to administrative agencies. Bill is well equipped to guide businesses through the full lifecycle of a legal dispute—from pre-suit strategy through trial.

As lead counsel, Bill has managed litigation teams through discovery, motion practice, and resolution. Bill has successfully counseled businesses through complex disputes, including resolution of discrimination and whistleblower claims before the Maine Human Rights Commission, and achieved successful results for clients in high-stakes court proceedings.

Copyright © 2026 Fisher Phillips LLP. All Rights Reserved.

As lead counsel, Bill has managed litigation teams through discovery, motion practice, and resolution. Bill has successfully counseled businesses through various complex disputes, including resolution of discrimination and whistleblower claims before the Maine Human Rights Commission, and achieving successful results for clients in high-stakes court proceedings.

Before joining Fisher Phillips, Bill was an associate in the litigation practice group of a Portland-based litigation defense firm, where he served as lead counsel in defense of personal injury, construction, and other commercial disputes. Bill brings a broad perspective and pragmatic approach in advocating for his clients' interests.

Credentials

Education

- University of Maine School of Law, J.D., 2023
- Husson University, B.A., magna cum laude, 2023

Admissions

- Maine

Copyright © 2026 Fisher Phillips LLP. All Rights Reserved.