OVERVIEW

Kaci Gamboa defends employers and businesses in employment-related disputes, guiding clients from initial assessment through discovery, motion practice, mediation, and trial preparation. She has drafted pleadings, motions, legal memoranda, discovery requests and responses, and proposed court orders while communicating directly with clients and opposing counsel to move matters forward.

Kaci's litigation experience spans discovery management, document review and production, factual investigation, deposition preparation, and evidentiary analysis. She has prepared for hearings, mediations, depositions, and trial by organizing exhibits, legal authorities, witness materials, and case files. She has also drafted memoranda analyzing substantive and procedural issues and researched statutes, regulations, and court opinions to support litigation positions.

Before joining Fisher Phillips, Kaci was an associate at a national full-service law firm, where she managed an active docket from initial assessment through mediation and early case settlement. During law school, she served as a judicial extern to a
