2027 CALIFORNIA LEGISLATIVE AND CASE LAW UPDATE WEBINAR

Event
Dec 16, 2026
9:30 am - 12:30 pm PST

Cost: $75 per person

Additional Dates:
Wednesday, January 20, 2027

Fisher Phillips invites you to join us for an informative, virtual half-day seminar exploring the key California legislative and legal updates that will shape the workplace in 2027 and beyond.

With Governor Newsom's final term drawing to a close, he signed a final flurry of workplace-related bills into law. Except as provided otherwise, most measures signed into law will take effect on January 1, 2027. This program will give your organization a clear, practical overview of what is changing and what you need to do to stay compliant.

What You'll Learn
Participants will gain insight into the most significant new laws and legal developments affecting California employers, including:

- SB 947 (No Robo Bosses Act) – This bill prohibits employers from relying solely on an "automated decision system" when making disciplinary or termination decisions. It requires a human review to corroborate such decisions, and provides workers with a written "post-use" notice.

- SB 951 (AI Layoff Notices) – This bill amends California's WARN Act to require employers to provide specified information in WARN notices when a layoff, relocation, or termination is caused "in whole or in substantial part" by an AI system or other automated technology.

Workplace Surveillance & Privacy

- AB 1331 (No Surveillance in Bathrooms) – This bill prohibits employers from using a "workplace surveillance tool" to monitor employees in a bathroom and gives employees the right to leave such a tool behind when entering a bathroom.

- AB 1883 (Privacy Protections for Employees' Emotional States and Neural Data) – This bill prohibits employers from using an AI-enabled surveillance tool to recognize or predict an employee's emotional state or to collect "neural data" generated by measuring an employee's nervous system.

- SB 690 (Effort to Curb Digital Wiretapping Lawsuits) – This bill removes the private right of action for claims under the "pen register" provision of the California Invasion of Privacy Act, applying retroactively to pending lawsuits filed on or after January 1, 2025.

Wage & Hour and Pay Equity

- SB 1237 (Increased Penalties for Pay Data Reporting Failures) – This bill significantly increases the maximum civil penalty for repeated failures to file required annual pay data reports with California's

Civil Rights Department, from $200 to $1,000 per employee.

- AB 1697 (More Time to Prepare for Stay-or-Pay Ban) – This bill delays implementation of last year's stay-or-pay ban until January 1, 2027, giving employers an additional year to restructure such contracts and accommodate collective bargaining agreements.
- AB 2646 (Major Wage Hike in Agricultural Industry) – This bill imposes a statewide minimum wage of $19.75 per hour for certain agricultural workers, including H-2A employees and their local-worker counterparts.

Employment Discrimination & Leave

- SB 1149 (Bereavement Leave) – This bill expands California's bereavement leave law to allow employees to take up to five days of leave upon the death of a "designated person" — any person related by blood or whose association is the equivalent of a family relationship.
- AB 1803 (Anti-Hate Speech Training) – This bill expands California's sexual harassment prevention training requirement, effective January 1, 2028, to also include "anti-hate speech training" on recognizing, reporting, and confronting workplace speech that vilifies or incites hatred based on protected characteristics.

Workplace Safety & Enforcement

- AB 2321 (Revamped Cal/OSHA Investigations) – This bill requires Cal/OSHA's Bureau of Investigations to investigate any serious injury, illness, or exposure cited as a willful violation, requires immediate referrals to county prosecutors, and makes it a misdemeanor to willfully resist or interfere with Cal/OSHA.
- AB 1776 (High-Profile Fight Over Anti-Trust Law Changes) – This bill implements changes to
