

Fisher Phillips Co-Sponsors National Employment Law Council Reception

Event
3.11.10

On March 11, 2010 Fisher Phillips and AT&T co-sponsored a reception in Atlanta for the National Employment Law Council. The NELC is an organization dedicated to the enrichment of the minority bar in the practice of representing management in labor and employment issues. The reception was attended by a diverse group of in-house and outside employment lawyers and senior HR professionals who enjoyed networking with NELC members from various companies.

Fisher Phillips Atlanta attorneys Shanon Stevenson and Jessica Cook participated in the event.
