

Immigration Compliance Under Georgia Law - Canton, GA – February 29

Event
2.29.12

Are You in Compliance With the Immigration Laws?

The Georgia Illegal Immigration Reform and Enforcement Act of 2011 went into effect on July 1, 2011. The E-Verify requirement for private employers started phasing in on January 1, 2012. Are you already using E-Verify under the law? Do you know what you are required to do and when? Kim Kiel Thompson, Chair of the Global Immigration Practice Group at Fisher Phillips will present a discussion of the requirements of the new law.

This session will include topics such as:

- Determining when your company will be required to participate in E-Verify
- What E-Verify is and how to use it
- What additional steps you will need to take if you are a contractor or subcontractor with the State of Georgia or one of its political subdivisions
- Prohibited actions that could result in imprisonment and fines

Seminar Date and Location:
