

Employees on International Assignments: Banking, Currency and Monetary Benefits and Issues – Philadelphia, PA – March 1

Event

3.01.12

The seminar will be presented by Mr. William Block of HSBC Bank, NA, and will provide valuable information for employers on the types of currency and monetary benefits that can be made available to employees on international assignment, both inside the United States and outside of the United States. This presentation will address issues that will help all types of employers in assisting employees of all levels on international assignment with banking, currency and monetary benefits. Mr. Block will also discuss the challenges of providing such services to employees on international assignments, as well as solutions for success.

Mr. Block is a Vice President with HSBC Bank, NA, part of one of the world's largest financial services organizations. He and his organization have extensive experience assisting internationally mobile expatriates to build up funds while their careers take them around the world. HSBC Bank serves customers in more than 80 countries and territories worldwide.

This program is sponsored by Fisher Phillips and hosted by the International Employers Forum. There is no cost for this event.
