

When Was The Last Time Your Medical Office Had A Checkup? – Boca Raton, FL – September 20

Event

Employment Law Lunch and Learn

Join us for an interactive employment law lunch and learn. It is time to shape up your employment policies and practices. This hard-hitting panel discussion will address recent changes and trends in the law and will highlight current management-related problems encountered by medical offices of all sizes.

With the Department of Labor's current enforcement position on wage and hour issues and the continuing surge in lawsuits, would you get burned if faced with a challenge to your office's wage payment practices? Do you have an understanding about the "rules" regarding employee/employer use of social networking? Would you be able to respond to the aggressive EEOC? Work is no longer just another day at the office.

Ask all the questions you have while attending the program - the attorneys from Fisher Phillips will be there to give the information you need.

Seminar Date and Location:

- September 20 - Maggiano's, 21090 St. Andrews Blvd., Boca Raton, FL
