

ABA Labor and Employment Law Luncheon

Event

3.11.13

New Orleans Associate Tabatha George was a featured panelist for a presentation to law students at the Tulane Law School on March 11, 2013 at the ABA Labor and Employment Law Luncheon. The panel discussed how best to prepare for and obtain a position as a labor and employment lawyer in private practice or in an academic, corporate or government setting.