“Why Unions Are All Up In Your (Even Non-Union) Business”

Thursday, July 18, 2013

Over the past few years, a revitalized National Labor Relations Board has taken aggressive steps to expand its reach to non-union employers. Through adjudicative decisions, guidance memos and an unprecedented use of its authority it has imposed new requirements on all employers. In this presentation, we will look at how these recent decisions impact your workplace policies, practices and employee handbooks.

We will also discuss how HR professionals can craft policies that are in compliance with current Board law, enforce policies without infringing employees’ rights to engage in protected concerted activity and avoid unfair labor practice charges.
