

Global Landscape for Employment Law - Portland, OR

Event

11.15.13

The PHRMA Global Special Interest Group hosted a presentation on "Global Landscape for Employment Law" with Philadelphia attorney Celia Joseph.

The objective of the program was to provide general advice to Human Resources and other professionals responsible for managing employees working outside of the United States, or international employees working in the United States in compliance with U.S. and international employment laws.