

Social Media Headaches For Employers

WEBINAR

Event

4.03.14

C.R. Wright presented during "Social Media Headaches For Employers" a webinar on April 3.

Employees' use of social media presents challenges for employers that are constantly growing and changing in nature and complexity. Prudent employers are right to be concerned about these challenges.

In the 60-minute webinar, C.R. explained the difficulties posed by employee social media use and provided some practical advice on facing these challenges in today's business environment.
