

HR Roundtable - Special Education Breakfast Series - July

Event

7.24.14

Join us for breakfast and a discussion on hot topics in special education every other month for the 2014-2015 school year! This event is a great opportunity to network and talk to other Special Education Directors and Administrators, along with Fisher Phillips attorneys in an informal and collaborative setting to get the information you need to stay in the know.

Questions and Answers

For our first briefing on July 24, 2014:

Lessons Learned from Due Process Hearings – Surviving the Battle!

Join Dianna Bowen, Partner, Fisher Phillips, and Angela Pittman, Director of Special Education, Dallas ISD, as they discuss surviving a due process hearing and the aftermath, including ways to avoid a hearing, preparing for an inevitable hearing, and following-up to prevent future issues. Ms. Bowen will provide legal analysis and keys to succeed in due process hearings. Ms. Pittman adds practical tips to repair the school/parent relationship after the dust settles.

In addition, mark your calendars for the rest of the series which will include other hot topics in special education, such as:

- Dealing with medically complex students
- Keeping schools safe when parents are the problem
- Child find and evaluation issues

• Child and evaluation issues

- Discipline of ED students
- Autism
