

Insights, News & Events

THE 2014 HR ACADEMY - PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT & TERMINATION

Event

Nov 20, 2014

The Cumming-Forsyth County Chamber of Commerce's Human Resource Council and Fisher Phillips are pleased to present the 2014 HR Academy. Human resources professionals and those who perform human resources duties are cordially invited to attend.

The HR Academy is a series of seminars that are designed to provide HR professionals with knowledge about the most prominent topics that impact their industry.

Date and Location:

November 20, 2014

Cumming Library
585 Dahlonega St
Cumming, GA 30040

Time:

9:00 a.m. - 11:00 a.m.

Topic: Performance Management & Termination

Performance management is the one of the most challenging areas for human resource managers to navigate. Effective screening, hiring and disciplining in a positive, constructive way will improve individual employee performance, as well as overall organizational effectiveness. Properly handling the discharge of an employee can avoid costly lawsuits for your company.

Cost:

$30 for Chamber Members

$35 for Non-Chamber Members

To register click here or please call (770) 887-6461

About the Presenters

Tracy Moon is a partner in the Atlanta office of Fisher Phillips. He represents employers in all aspects of labor and employment law. Tracy counsels and trains employers on labor and employment law, including conducting on-site compliance inspections and in-house management training programs.

For questions or to RSVP, please contact Stacey McReynolds at (404) 240-4280.

This program has been submitted to the HR Certification Institute for review.