Keeping Discipline and Terminations “NEAT” and “CLEAN.”

Let’s face it, disciplining and terminating employees can be a messy and unpleasant experience. If you are a manager or employer, you’ve, in all likelihood, had to deal with these difficult situations. Many employment actions are filed by disgruntled employees who felt they were “wrongfully terminated” regardless of the legitimacy of the decision. In our presentation, we will discuss how to avoid these situations and decrease your risk, by relying on a “CLEAN” and “NEAT” checklist to make sure you have appropriately evaluated and documented disciplinary and termination decisions. These easy, handy steps will save you headache AND heartache.
