

2015 Labor/Employment and Workplace Safety Update - March

Event

3.05.15

The Cumming-Forsyth County Chamber of Commerce's Human Resource Council, Fisher Phillips and Lanier Technical College are pleased to present the first program in the 2015 Human Resources and Workplace Safety Series – 2015 Labor/Employment and Workplace Safety Update.

The 2015 Human Resources and Workplace Safety seminar series includes eight programs designed for business owners, managers and supervisors who must deal with real life workplace issues that have real legal consequences. These programs provide professionals timely, updated information on the important legal topics relevant to their business and other important workplace legal developments.

2015 Labor/Employment and Workplace Safety Update

2015 is shaping up to be an interesting year for businesses. The Affordable Care Act is in full swing, wage-hour litigation is on the rise, the National Labor Relations Board has expanded their scope, and OSHA dramatically increased employers' recordkeeping requirements. Caught in the middle of all this commotion are business owners, managers, and human resources professionals. This presentation will provide an overview of the latest trends in human resources and safety law and how they affect your business.
