May 21, 2015 – Protecting Your Company's Trade Secrets and Other Confidential Information

Your National Sales Manager just resigned to join your main competitor. What's worse, you discover that files are missing from his office, and that he's emailed your customer list and other sensitive company data to his personal account. Most employers don't know they are vulnerable to electronic theft and most don't know how to find out if they have been a victim of theft of their confidential information. What can and should employers do to protect their trade secrets and confidential information? This session will provide an overview of what constitutes a trade secret, what tools employers can use to protect their confidential information and trade secrets, and what factors courts consider in determining whether restrictive covenants are enforceable.
