Special Guest Speaker Addition - Kim Thompson, National Immigration Chair for Fisher Phillips.

The Global Talent Pool: Advanced Tips on Finding and Managing Global Talent in the Pacific Northwest

Kim Thompson is the national chair of the Immigration Practice Group for Fisher Phillips. She will add her national perspective on the changes to immigration law and provide insight on how other industries are addressing the competition for global talent. As you prepare for your H-1B cases this year, Fisher Phillips will also provide a special checklist to attendees that they can use for their H-1B cases. Regardless of whether you have H-1B cases for this year's quota or not, this session promises to deliver creative strategies to attract and retain talent.

Presenters:

Kim Thompson is a Partner in the Atlanta office. She serves as chair of the firm's Global Immigration Practice Group. Kim's practice focuses on immigration and nationality law; she began practicing in this area in 1990.

Davis Bae is the Regional Managing Partner of the Seattle office. His practice focuses on providing effective immigration solutions for companies in Pacific Northwest and throughout the United States.

Cody Nunn is an Associate at the Seattle office. Her practice focuses on business immigration and global immigration matters.
