Getting Your House in Order: What You Need to Know to Excel as a New Lawyer

Attorneys from the national labor and employment law firm Fisher Phillips will present this “boot camp” designed for newer attorneys and law students just beginning their legal careers. Hear from successful attorneys what it takes to get your career off on the right foot to help ensure you are successful.

Topics

- Keeping your administrative house in order (importance of billing, timekeeping, being a good firm citizen, keeping up with CLEs, etc.)
Danielle Urban
- Great legal writing (beyond what you learn in law school)
Darin Mackender
- Diversity and inclusiveness for lawyers
Todd Fredrickson
- Ethical and effective business development of internal and external clients
Todd Fredrickson & Mike Greco
- Private practice v. public practice: what truly interests you
Larry Lee
