Fisher Phillips Breakfast Briefing

Got a Handle on Employee Leaves of Absence? Find out What's New With The California Family Rights Act

Join us as we present on the recently revised regulations under the California Family Rights Act (CFRA) that went into effect in July 2015. Partner Jason Geller will address strategies for employers to effectively respond to leave requests by employees and ways to avoid common legal landmines under CFRA. We will cover how certain new 2016 employment laws will impact employer obligations under CFRA and provide key tips to ensure compliance and stay out of trouble.
