Herding Cats: Dealing with Difficult Faculty, Staff and Student Issues

Independent schools provide supportive, collaborative and constructive environments for employees to work and students to learn. But times are changing, and the legal landscape for independent schools has changed along with it. Join Fisher Phillips and School Office Services as they navigate the mine field of teacher and student legal issues, presenting best practices for avoiding litigation and maintaining compliance in an increasingly regulated environment.

Topics Include:

- Staying Ahead Of the Curve: Addressing Student Sexual Assault
- Sexual Orientation and Transgender Issues Involving Students and Employees
- Mastering Difficult Conversations with Faculty, Staff, Parents and Students
- Teacher Employment Contracts
