

Insights, News & Events

2016 WORKPLACE LAW SEMINAR: EVOLVING WITH THE CHANGING TIMES

Portland Annual Seminar

Event

Jul 19, 2016

8:00 AM - 11:30 AM

Hotel Monaco
506 SW Washington Street
Portland, OR 97204

50

FISHER PHILLIPS PORTLAND PRESENTS: CH-CH-CH-CHANGES...

Oregon employers know that workplace law is always evolving. But things seem different this year. You're crossing over a bridge into a new era of labor and employment law and things will never be quite the same. You need to make sure you don't fall behind.

Join us for a high-level discussion of some of the most critical and developing issues facing the modern employer, designed specifically for corporate counsel, HR executives, and business owners and managers.

- Managing The Millennial Workforce
- Adapting To Recreational And Medical Marijuana Use
- Independent Contractor Misclassification In An Uber World
- New Era Of Pay Transparency And The Assault On Workplace Privacy Policies

Related People

Mitchell C. Baker

Partner

503.205.8080

Clarence M. Belnavis

Regional Managing Partner

206.693.5075

Agenda

8:00 a.m.

Registration & Breakfast

8:30 a.m. – 11:30 a.m.

Seminar

Cost: $50 per person

Questions? Contact Rimpal Singh at rsingh@fisherphillips.com

(HRCI Credit and SHRM Credit pending; CLE accreditation pending)

Todd A. Lyon

Partner and Labor Relations
Group Co-Chair

503.205.8095

Richard R. Meneghello

Chief Content Officer

503.205.8044