

2016 Texas Auto Dealers Seminar Series

Event

Dallas & Houston

More information below.

9.22.16 - 9.23.16

8:00 AM - 2:00 PM

Don't miss Fisher Phillips partners Steve Roppolo and Art Lambert as they join retail automotive industry experts for an information-packed program covering hot topics facing dealerships. Steve (Houston) and Art (Dallas) will focus on how upcoming changes to the federal overtime exemptions might impact your dealership.

Seminar Topics:

- The cost of good enough: what litigation and turnover are really costing your dealership
Presented by: Compli
- Dealership tax update
Presented by: Crowe Horwath LLP
- Legal Update 2016: current trends in the automotive industry
Presented by: Johnson Deluca Kurisky & Gould PC
- New overtime rule: What will change for dealerships?
Presented by: Fisher Phillips
- Stay one step ahead of the latest fraud trends: What's on the horizon for 2016?
Presented by: Bank of America Merrill Lynch

Dates and Locations:

September 22, 2016 - Maggiano's Dallas

September 23, 2016 - Maggiano's Houston

Click here to view the full agenda

Who Should Attend: Dealers and their top managers who would benefit from information in the finance, legal, operations, fraud, and HR areas.

Prerequisites: none

Advanced preparation: none

Advanced preparation: none

Program level: basic

Recommended For: CPE credit/field of study: 1.0 tax; 4.0 specialized knowledge

Space is limited, so please RSVP by Sept. 18.

Register online or email the information to Kaitlyn Delaney at kaitlyn.delaney@crowehorwath.com.

Important note:

Each participant must sign in individually at the program event with their name and the email address to which their CPE certificate should be emailed. CPE can only be awarded for portions of the event in which individuals are present and actively engaged in the program.

For questions or concerns about the program or CPE, contact Kaitlyn Delaney at kaitlyn.delaney@crowehorwath.com.

Related Offices

Dallas