A CARTERSVILLE-BARTOW CHAMBER AND FISHER PHILLIPS EVENT

Event

Cartersville-Bartow Chamber

122 West Main Street

Cartersville, GA 30120

11.02.16

7:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Jury Summons

Attention Recipient: Report to the Cartersville-Bartow Chamber on November 2 to serve as a juror in a mock trial and participate in this employment law seminar.

The Cartersville-Bartow Chamber has partnered with Fisher Phillips to provide HR professionals and business owners with an engaging and interactive opportunity to learn how to mitigate risk associated with managing employees.

From Termination to Trial: Myra Creighton v. GEAR Enterprises LLC

Presented by C. R. Wright, Partner, Fisher Phillips

Follow the story of GEAR Enterprises LLC as they terminate an employee and then deal with the aftermath of the termination. They claim the employee was terminated for poor performance, but the former employee believes otherwise. Attendees will witness a mock trial via a series of video vignettes to determine what really happened and how GEAR Enterprises LLC may have avoided the lawsuit. Are your managers and supervisors a potential liability in an employment litigation case? If you have doubts, you should attend this mock trial presentation.

Workplace Violence Prevention

Presented by Tracy Moon, Jr., Partner, Fisher Phillips

In the wake of recent tragedies, employers have a heightened interest in strategies to minimize workplace violence and related legal risks.
