Companies benefit when management is committed to workplace safety and health. It is crucial that employers maintain safe workplaces for both practical and legal reasons. Discover how to develop a strategic and tactical safety system and achieve operational excellence. Explore real benefits and learn how an effective safety system can assist in protecting a brand and reputation. In addition, learn how, when used properly, safety compliance can be a “profit center” and not another administrative cost.

Learning Objectives:

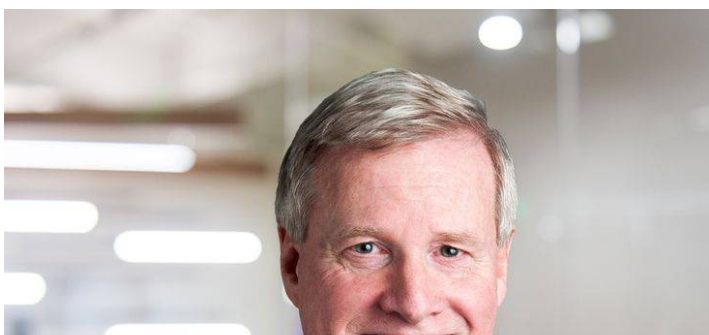

- Identify how a safety system can increase sustainability, leadership and growth;
- Increase your return on investment by reducing workers’ comp and healthcare costs;
- Generate competitive advantages while protecting your company’s brand and reputation.
