

Employee Handbooks: A Mid-Year Update on Handbook Policies and Drafting Mistakes to Avoid

WEBINAR

Event

Webinar

6.27.17

1:30 PM - 3:00 PM EST

Attorney Michelli Rivera will be presenting at this years BLR event on the topic of "Mid-Year Updates for Employee Handbooks." This 75 minute session will reach a national audience of HR professionals and will include any updates that might apply for mid-year 2017.

Join us on June 27 for a succinct review of recent developments impacting employee handbook policy updates nationwide and legal insights into employee handbook policy drafting and policy enforcement mistakes to avoid.

Plus, you'll learn how to:

- Craft an employee handbook that covers the policies they want
- Review the current employee handbook carefully critical eye to determine how it needs to be updated and for when
- Examples of employee handbook policy updates that may be necessary given recent developments related to:
 - non-smoking policies
 - guns and weapons on your premises
 - social media, recording, and communications policies
 - dress codes and grooming
 - fair compensation
 - confidentiality and non-disclosure of wages
 - paid leave benefits—e.g., how state and municipal laws requiring paid sick leave impact handbook policy development generally for multistate employers
 - background checks