August 10 -11, 2017

The CA Bar Appellate Law Specialist Exam is given every other year in odd years and the next exam is Tuesday, Oct. 24, 2017. Here is your chance to study for the CA Appellate Law Specialist Exam with guidance from Appellate Law Certified Legal Specialists and former Commissioners who wrote and graded the exam in Appellate Law.

At this program you will get a thorough overview of the critical areas of civil appellate law and a jump start on your study routine. This carefully planned program will give you tips on how to take the exam, what to expect on exam day and how to study for it. We will have a practice essay session with at least two questions found in the Bar's sample packet, that will conclude with issue spotting and a review of how you could have best answered those questions (the practice test answers will not be graded, just discussed).

By taking this course you can eliminate the stress that goes with the unknown when preparing for an exam and you can get guidance and subject matter review from those that have taken the exam previously (including those who just took it in 2015).

PLEASE NOTE: This program only addresses the CIVIL appellate law exam. It does not cover the criminal appellate law exam topics. Please call and ask for Faith to discuss your options if you are taking the criminal appellate law exam.
