Please join Fisher Phillips, Jersey Staffing, and USI Insurance Services for cocktails, hors d'oeuvres, and a roundtable discussion on Thursday November 16th at Tabor Road Tavern in Morris Plains, New Jersey.

A sophisticated workforce, unprecedented access to information, and a shifting paradigm in perceptions around career stability are fueling a business environment where human capital - the talent - is increasingly difficult to identify, develop, and secure. Competition and threats are everywhere and businesses must be nimble to keep pace. Understanding the components of talent management -- from recruiting to compensation and benefits, to employment contracts, and everything in between -- will leave organizations better positioned for future success.

This lively roundtable discussion will offer insights drawn on experiences from front line players in the Fight for Talent. We hope to see you on November 16th. Space is limited, so please reply to this email or contact Chris McGoldrick (617-532-9324) to reserve your seat, or if you would like additional information.
