8:30 AM - 10:30 AM

Companies in every industry are wrestling with how to reduce the risks to allegations of workplace harassment, especially allegations involving high-profile employees, and how to respond if such allegations emerge.

Join us to learn about the impact of such allegations, identify ways that company leadership can effectively reduce such risks and how best to respond if and when a potentially explosive situation emerges.

- Recognize how imbalances of power can lead to allegations of sexual harassment
- Review applicable law and other potential risks
- Examine scenarios which lead to allegations of harassment
- Policies and practices to help protect your organization
- Making these practices part of your workplace culture
- Investigating and responding effectively to allegations of harassment
