

2018 Kentucky Occupational Safety and Health Management Conference

Event

Holiday Inn Louisville East
1325 South Hurstbourne Parkway
Louisville, KY 40222

April 19-20, 2018

The Fisher Phillips Louisville office is proud to be the presenting sponsor of the Kentucky Chamber's 2018 Occupational and Health Management Conference. The conference will provide new and up-to-date information on topics geared toward safety directors, plant and facility managers and many others as they navigate the ever-changing climate of workplace safety regulations and ensure compliance for worker safety.

Join our attorneys Todd Logsdon, George Adams, Mark Gomsak, Chantell Foley and other experienced speakers to hear various perspectives during this two day session dedicated to providing valuable insights about important workplace safety issues. These include workers' compensation costs and ratings, the latest on OSHA recordkeeping, workplace violence, the opioid crisis and updates from both Federal and Kentucky OSHA.

To access the full agenda, please click here.

For more information or to register, please visit the following link:

<https://www.kychamber.com/node/751>

Related Offices

Louisville