6.21.18

11:00 AM – 12:00 PM PST

The legislative session is in full swing and sexual harassment is one of the more prominent issues. There are over two dozen pending bills in the Legislature dealing with sexual harassment – most imposing more responsibilities and liability on California employers. From personal liability for retaliation and increased training requirements to prohibitions on arbitration and confidential settlement agreements, sexual harassment is dominating the debate in Sacramento.

But that's not all- a whole host of non-sexual harassment bills are pending as well, including an expansion of lactation accommodation requirements, new pay data reporting obligations, and increased liability for data breaches. Get ahead of the game and find out what potential changes are coming so you can plan ahead. Presented by our own capitol insider, Benjamin Ebbink, who will give you a preview, along with “behind-the-scenes” insight.
