The California Supreme Court has made it more difficult for employers to classify workers as independent contractors. The Court's decision in Dynamex outlined a new "ABC" test to determine whether contractors are properly classified as such. This presentation will explain the new test and highlight the liability that can result from improperly classifying employees as contractors including wage and hour liability, unemployment and withholding tax audits, and civil penalties.

Join Fisher Phillips Partner David Amaya and Associate Miranda Watkins on September 26, 2018, to learn the information every employer needs to know about independent contractors in the workplace.
