3.14.19

9:00 A.M. - 11:00 A.M.

This interactive seminar will provide you with the knowledge and confidence to navigate an OSHA investigation.

Join our skilled OSHA attorneys Kevin Hess and Curt Moore for a lesson on what OSHA doesn't want employers to know. Kevin and Curt will share their real-world experiences and provide you with critical information about employer rights and best practices during an investigation. OSHA investigations are extremely time sensitive, emotional, and confusing – Kevin and Curt will not only review the fundamentals of responding to an OSHA investigation, but will teach you how to appropriately respond to OSHA inquiries in a manner that may limit additional liability. The seminar will discuss all phases of an OSHA inspection and provide tips on how to best manage each phase. Provided materials will include a case flow chart and employer's checklist
