

Workplace Investigations Three-Part Webinar Series

WEBINAR

Event

GoToWebinar

May 23 – June 20, 2019

10:00 – 11:00 a.m. PT

Every employer will need to conduct a workplace investigation at some point, and an effective investigation can make the difference between a litigation-free resolution and a painstakingly long, costly, lawsuit. Please join Fisher Phillips attorneys Holly Walker, David Dornak and Allison Kheel for a complimentary three-part webinar series designed to give you a comprehensive overview of workplace investigations and what your company needs to know to be prepared.

Over the next month and a half, we will cover an overview of workplace investigations, highlighting best practices and common mistakes, witness interviewing, and record-keeping and documentation. Additional details for each webinar are below.

If you have any questions, please contact Kelsey Crews at kcrews@fisherphillips.com.

Each hour-long webinar is pending for 1.0 HRCI/SHRM Preferred credits.*

Topic: Workplace Investigations Overview – Best Practices and Common Mistakes

Thursday, May 23, 2019 | 10:00 – 11:00 a.m. PT

Speaker: Holly Walker, Fisher Phillips

Internal investigations are on the rise – following best practices will not only save time and money, but can also improve the workplace and ensure employees feel comfortable and safe at work. During this webinar, Holly will provide you with an overview of common mistakes companies make in conducting workplace investigations, and provide solutions to those challenges and tips to avoid litigation.
