

3rd Annual Kentucky Occupational and Health Management Conference

Event

Griffin Gate Marriott Resort & Spa
1800 Newtown Pike
Lexington, KY 40511

February 11-12, 2020
8:00am- 5:00 pm EST

Fisher Phillips is proud to be the presenting sponsor of the Kentucky Chamber's 2020 3rd Annual Occupational and Health Management Conference. The conference will provide new and up-to-date information on topics geared toward safety directors, plant and facility managers, and many others as they navigate the ever-changing climate of workplace safety regulations and ensure compliance for worker safety.

Join our attorneys Todd Logsdon, George Adams, Chantell Foley and other experienced safety professionals to hear various perspectives during this two-day session dedicated to providing valuable insights about important workplace safety issues. These include contractor safety management, the latest updates on OSHA, workplace violence prevention, internal safety culture and programs, and the ISO 45001 standard.
