With new developments being presented throughout each day in the age of 24-hour news, there is panic, rumors, questions and confusion increasing with each update. Join Fisher Phillips lawyers from our International, Workplace Safety, and Immigration practice groups for a 1-hour panel discussion and webinar.

Our team will present an overview of the current situation and provide helpful insights on managing the developments. Of particular interest to those managing ex-pats and business travelers, we will discuss the current legal and other challenges arising from the crisis.

SPEAKERS

William D. Wright , Partner, Fisher Phillips
Howard Mavity, Partner, Fisher Phillips
