12:00 p.m EDT – 1:00 pm EDT

Wage and hour compliance is never easy. The recent COVID-19 pandemic has forced some New Jersey businesses to shut down completely and others to reduce operations or shift to a remote work. Now, as businesses throughout the state reopen, employers are faced with a whole new slate of obstacles. Despite these compliance challenges, there are problems that commonly crop up in the wage and hour context that employers can and should avoid. New Jersey Partner Kathleen Caminiti and New Jersey Associate Eric Baginski will be presenting on the most common wage and hour mistakes all employers should keep in mind to avoid costly litigation in the pandemic atmosphere.
