

Hawaii Announces Stay-At-Home Order And Mandatory Self-Quarantine Period

Insights

3.25.20

Beginning on March 25, 2020, all persons in the State of Hawaii have been ordered by Governor Ige to stay at home through April 30, 2020 to reduce the spread of COVID-19, except to the extent necessary to maintain continuity of operations of federal critical infrastructure sectors. Notably, Governor Ige's order permits individuals to travel for health and safety reasons, to obtain goods and services from essential business, and allows non-essential businesses to engage in minimum basic operations. The order further permits travel to care for the elderly, minors, dependents, persons with disabilities, and other high-risk individuals. Additionally, the order allows travel from a person's place of residence to the nearest airport and any travel required by law enforcement. Outdoor exercise including surfing, swimming, and walking pets is allowed, so long as social distancing requirements are met.

Businesses Affected By The Order

Gatherings of 10 or more people are largely prohibited. Fitness centers, locations with amusement rides, carnivals, water parks, aquariums, zoos, museums, arcades, fairs, children's play centers, playgrounds, funplexes, theme parks, bowling alleys, movie and other theaters, concert and music halls, and social clubs are closed to the public. Additionally, all businesses not identified in the governor's order, federal guidance, or designated by the Director of the Hawaiian Emergency Management Agency (HIEMA) as essential, shall be closed.
