

New Book on Employment Litigation in New Jersey

News

3.07.06

Cynthia M. Jacob of the New Jersey office is the Editor-in-Chief of the new two-volume publication Employment Litigation in New Jersey (LexisNexis/Matthew Bender, 2006). The broad ranging treatise includes chapters on general matters such as retention of counsel, client counseling and pre-claim fact investigation, pleading and responses, pre-trial motions, discovery, preparation of cases, and damages, as well as chapters on insurance coverage issues, administrative practice, and in-depth analysis of all causes of action under New Jersey and federal statutes. Useable forms and brief practice tips are supplied throughout the book. Click here for more information.

Please reach out to our Media team for any news inquiries.