Fisher Phillips announces that five of Florida's most respected labor and employment attorneys have joined the Firm's Orlando office effective September 1, 2007. The attorneys who have been practicing at Akerman Senterfitt's Orlando office, represent 115 years of experience in labor and employment law.

The five are: Partners Jeffrey E. Mandel, David V. Kornreich, and Benton N. Wood; Of Counsel Vasilis ("Bill") Katsafanas; and Associate David A. Young. Mr. Mandel will be the managing partner of the Orlando office.

Fisher Phillips Chairman Roger Quillen said, "Our Orlando office overnight becomes one of the best labor and employment legal practices in the state of Florida with the addition of these attorneys. This group includes one of the deans' of labor lawyers in the state of Florida, David Kornreich. Each of these lawyers has demonstrated the knowledge and commitment that our firm provides to our clients."

Mr. Mandel said, "Fisher Phillips has the national reach and the extensive experience that will enhance our practices and benefit the clients with whom we currently work. We are able to tap into one of the richest sources of labor and employment knowledge in the country. Each of us wanted to join what we view as the premier boutique in the U.S."
