DALLAS, TX (December 1, 2010) - Fisher Phillips announced that its Dallas office has moved to Lincoln Plaza in downtown Dallas, leasing more than 8,000 square feet of office space. The new space is nearly 3,000 square feet larger than the firm's previous offices to accommodate the firm's growth in Dallas.

The Lincoln Plaza office building places Fisher Phillips near the Dallas Arts District, one of the newest and most vibrant parts of Dallas and the heart of the city's cultural and entertainment district. In addition, the building has recently undergone extensive renovations, with the addition of new dining facilities and extensive, high-tech conference amenities.

"We are excited about this new chapter as the expanded office space will allow for our firm's continued growth," said Michael Abcarian, managing partner of the Dallas office. "Our clients and staff will also benefit from meeting and working in a fresh and more dynamic setting in the center of one of the most up-and-coming areas of the city."

The new office address is: 500 North Akard Street, Suite 3550, Dallas, Texas 75201. The firm's phone and fax numbers remain the same at 214-220-9100 and 214-220-9122, respectively. E-mail addresses will also remain the same.
